

VOCABULARY: UNIT 1

UNIT 1: Lesson 1 Ant and the Three Little Figs figs: fruit that is shaped like a small pear and grows on a tree quickly: with speed finally: coming or happening at the end chance: possibility of something happening anytime: at any time

UNIT 1: Lesson 2 Come Back, Jack boring: not interesting adventure: and experience that is interesting or dangerous exciting: stirring up strong feelings; thrilling searched: looked for steep: having a very sharp slope or slant; high nimble: moving quickly and lightly

UNIT 1: Lesson 3 The Library nearsighted: able to see things that are close by better than those things that are far away incredible: amazing; astonishing manufactured: to have made something tutoring: to teach privately donations: gifts, contributions library: a room or building that has a collection of books, magazines, and newspapers

UNIT 1: Lesson 4 Story Hour – Starring Megan!

librarian: a person who works in a library assistant: a person who helps calm: to make quiet and still patient: willing to wait amazement: great surprise mistake: something that is not done right

UNIT 1: Lesson 5 Tomas and the Library Lady midnight: twelve o'clock at night howling: making a loud, wailing cry chattered: clicked together quickly thorny: covered with sharp points glaring: staring angrily eager: wanting very much to do something